GAME NAME
IT BLITZ — Information Technology Challenge
A retro arcade "Pick-a-Box" quiz game show

RUN TIME
About 10–15 minutes per game
Round timer: Off / 5 / 10 / 15 min (default 10) · 15 sec per question · 10 sec steal

PLAYERS / GROUPS
3 to 5 groups (teams)
Recommended 3–5 members per group · one game manager operates the game

NUMBER OF WINNERS
One (1) — the highest score
1st / 2nd / 3rd ranking shown, but a single champion. A tie triggers a tie-breaker.

🎮 MECHANICS

POINT VALUES: 2,500 · 5,000 · 7,500 · 10,000 · 15,000 · 20,000 (higher points = harder questions)

1. Set up 3–5 teams, name them, and choose who plays first (🎲 Random or a specific team).
2. Teams take turns — the active team picks a category and a point value from the 5×6 board.
3. Answer the multiple-choice question before the 15-second timer runs out.
4. Correct → the points are added, then it returns to the board automatically.
5. Wrong or time-out → the tile's points are deducted from the team (scores can go negative).
6. Steal rule (when on): after a wrong answer, a 10-second buzz-in window opens — the game manager taps the first team to buzz in. Correct = they take the points; a missed steal costs them nothing.
7. The correct answer is not revealed on a wrong answer (so a stealing team can't just read it).
8. Each tile can be played only once — 30 questions total (6 per category).
9. Play continues until all 30 questions are done or the round timer runs out.
10. Optional score-to-win target (40k / 50k / 75k) — the first team to reach it wins instantly.

5 CATEGORIES: Programming · Networking · Cybersecurity · Database · Hardware & Software

🎤 TIE-BREAKER

🎤 Sudden-Death "Grab the Microphone" Round

- Triggered when there is a tie for 1st place.
- The first team to grab the microphone (the manager taps whoever buzzed in first) answers a bonus question — worth 10,000 pts, with a 20-second timer.
- Correct → they win instantly. Wrong → they are eliminated and the mic passes to the others — sudden death until a team takes it.
- Result: a single champion is decided.
